EDUCATION

The John Marshall Law School, J.D.
Indiana University-Bloomington,
B.A.

Christine Riesner Bond focuses her practice primarily on civil defense litigation and handles a multitude of cases across the State of Indiana. She is involved in all aspects of litigation, including arbitrations, mediations, jury trials, and appeals. Her experience includes representing insurance carriers and corporations in handling cases involving insurance coverage, auto negligence, premises liability, property damage, breach of warranty, retail and restaurant, real estate E&O and agency matters, construction and wrongful death. Chris also specializes in claims relating to agriculture, including equestrian, farming and livestock.

Additionally, Chris is a registered family law mediator. She is an active member of the Indiana State Bar Association serving as the chair of the Women in Law Committee for 2015-2016 and 2016-2017. She is also a member of the Indianapolis Bar Association and Shelby County Bar Association. Chris serves on the Board of Visitors for the 21st Century Scholars at Marion University in Indianapolis and is an assistant coach of the Marion University Speech Team.

Due to her location, Chris is available to handle files out of both Indiana Kopka Pinkus Dolin offices: Crown Point and Indianapolis. Throughout her career, Chris has put the interests of her clients first; and follows a team approach to litigation matters. Whether it involves following client litigation protocols, understanding client goals and concerns, or providing counseling and guidance for clients from a litigator's perspective, she makes meeting her clients' needs a top priority
