

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
PIKE CIRCUIT COURT
DIVISION I

MEMORANDUM REGARDING THE MOTION DOCKET

*****

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADVISED:

1. The regular motion docket of the Pike Circuit Court, Division I will not be openly read in court until the Supreme Court of Kentucky orders a resumption of normal business. The motion docket will, however, be published in a physical copy and available for viewing outside Judge Coleman's chambers. OR AT THE CLERK'S OFFICE.
2. As is normally done, motions for default judgment; confirmations of sale; and approval of attorney's fees will continue to be granted or denied subject to the Court's review of the record for compliance with the Civil Rules.
3. Motions for injunctive relief/temporary restraining orders and other emergencies will be assigned for a hearing and in accordance with the Supreme Court of Kentucky's Order.<sup>1</sup> With the exception of injunctions/TROs, it is within the Court's discretion to determine whether a matter is an emergency.
4. All other motions will be set for a hearing in mid- to late-summer. This is based on news reports, and other information released by governmental authorities, particularly from the Governor's Office and President Trump's news conference of March 16, 2020.

Entered this 17th day of March 2020.
