Curriculum Vitae: Rana D. Lange

Rana D. Lange concentrates her practice on the defense of liability lawsuits on behalf of insurance companies, self-insured corporations, and businesses. Her practice includes a wide variety of civil litigation, including Michigan No-Fault, both first and third party, construction, as well as professional liability such as errors and omissions. She is an experienced litigator, and has represented clients in complex cases in state, federal and appellate courts.

With a great deal of experience representing a variety of clients in real estate matters, Rana has handled cases involving real estate title curative actions, mobile and modular home title issues, evictions and foreclosures, mortgage default servicing, condominium law, as well as easement and riparian rights. She is a valuable asset to her clients when evaluating financial conditions associated with complex bankruptcy laws.

Rana's practice also expands into employment law; she is a dedicated member of the firm's Employment Practice Group and is an expert in the defense of municipalities and employers against a variety of labor and discrimination-based claims.

Named "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers three years in a row, from 2012-2014, Rana was also named 2014 Top Women Lawyers by Super Lawyers.

Rana is a fervent advocate for the organizations and individuals she represents and is dedicated to making their interests her number one priority. She takes a team approach to litigation matters, ensuring that her clients are fully engaged throughout the process.
