Chase is an accomplished attorney whose practice focuses on general civil litigation and municipal liability. Chase has extensive experience defending clients against high exposure claims for catastrophic injuries and representing healthcare providers in professional negligence matters. With a proven ability to manage sophisticated matters before administrative agencies, state courts and federal courts, Chase collaborates with clients to manage risk and obtain results. He handles matters from pre-litigation through verdict and has significant bench and jury trial experience.

Chase was selected to the 2019, 2020 and 2021 Super Lawyers Illinois Rising Stars List, a distinction reserved for no more than 2.5% of the attorneys in the state.

While in law school, he was a member of the Trial Advocacy & Dispute Resolution Honors Council. For his excellence in advocacy and alternative dispute resolution, Chase was one of eight students selected for the Trial Advocacy and Dispute Resolution Honors Board.

To give back to his community, Chase lends his litigation experience to law students at UIC John Marshall Law School, where he is an instructor for trial advocacy and alternative dispute resolution programs. Chase also serves on the Young Alumni Board for The John

Marshall Law School, the Alumni Advisory Board for Loras College, the Wine to Water Charity Board, and is a co-founder of the LIFTED Project. When not practicing law, Chase enjoys live music, sports, and honing his culinary skill set.
