As an attorney in the insurance defense industry, Gregory H. Akaraz brings invaluable resources and insight to practice when advocating for his clients. He has served as both in-house counsel for a national insurance company, as well as outside counsel.

Prior to insurance defense, Akaraz served as an assistant prosecuting attorney where he was responsible for five jurisdictions covering a total of nine cities within Wayne County, Michigan.

Akaraz applies his years of experience in representing insurance companies to providing each client with personalized service. His focus in insurance defense is on first- and third-party, as well as fraud, and SIU cases.
