Sarah Ogren is an associate attorney in KPD's Indianapolis office and handles insurance defense issues for clients throughout Indiana. Prior to joining the firm, she worked at Liberty Mutual in their field legal department where she assisted with a variety of insurance defense matters. Having transitioned from the insurance carrier side, Sarah brings invaluable insights to the legal arena, understanding both sides of insurance legal defense by crafting strategies and fostering a client-centric approach.

Sarah is a member of the Hamilton County Young Democrats and has served as an executive committee member and was chosen as the vice-chair in 2020. She currently lives in Carmel, Indiana and is active in her local government volunteering and assisting with local campaigns.
