Andrew P. Smith brings more than thirty years of experience defending and counseling municipal governments, school districts, law enforcement officers, and corrections officers throughout Northern Wisconsin in state and federal court. When working with public entities and board members, Smith offers practical solutions for complex and high-profile cases. His former experience as the County Board Chair in Oneida County, Wisconsin provides him with specialized knowledge of local government operations that is invaluable to clients.

Smith also has experience representing individual clients, assisting with estate planning, real estate matters, and business succession planning.

In his spare time, Andrew volunteers as a Nordic ski trail groomer for the Rhineland Area Silent Trails Association. He also gives back to his community by volunteering Camp Manito-wish YMCA.
