Kevin Majewski is a defense attorney in our Farmington Hills, Michigan location. Taking a creative approach to litigation, he identifies and frames complex issues in digestible ways. He prides himself in gathering all the facts of the case, critically analyzing all the information, and coming up with client-focused solutions. A tireless worker, Kevin is detail-orientated and works to ensure his clients are satisfied and receive successful outcomes. He believes that learning is a constant and takes every opportunity to expand his knowledge to be the best attorney he can be.

Before coming to KPD, Kevin worked for an insurance defense firm specializing in defending large retailers, businesses, and individuals in negligence and personal injury defense. While there, he gained valuable experience advocating for his clients in trials, hearings, and mediation.

A graduate of the University of Michigan-Dearborn, Kevin received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science, graduating with high distinction. Kevin then attended Michigan State University College of Law, receiving his Juris Doctor degree, magna cum laude, in 2014. While in law school, Kevin was awarded the Jurisprudence Award in both Patent Law and Rule of Law and Jurisprudence.

Outside of work, Kevin enjoys spending time with his family and golfing. After studying abroad in Poland, his love for travel continued to grow, and is now an avid traveler.
