- Provider Suits

Priscilla Esquivel is an associate attorney practicing in Michigan, where she brings a unique perspective to defense litigation, drawing on her diverse background in Human Resource Management and her experience as a plaintiff's attorney. Before transitioning to defense work, she handled PIP, family law, and personal injury cases, achieving an impressive record of settling nearly 100 cases in under a year.

This dual-sided experience gives her valuable insights into anticipating plaintiff strategies and crafting effective defenses. Her commitment to excellence and her strategic approach make her a trusted advocate for her clients.
