Bradley C. Yanalunas is an experienced Michigan litigator who represents clients in a broad spectrum of civil litigation and insurance defense matters. His practice includes defending claims involving premises liability, automobile accidents, Michigan No-Fault and PIP benefits, as well as handling third-party injury cases. He also advises his clients in disputes involving employment matters and construction defects and has experience working with public entities and their affiliated agencies.

His wide-range background offers clients practical solutions and strong advocacy both in and out of the courtroom. He has extensive experience conducting depositions, mediations, case evaluations, settlement negotiations, and hearings, allowing him to navigate claims efficiently and strategically. Clients benefit from Bradley's ability to assess risk, manage litigation, and work toward favorable resolutions.
