Kaleb Noblett maintains a diverse practice driven by curiosity and relationship. Representing household-name clients, small businesses, and Fortune 500 corporations in the real estate services market, retail space, food services industry, transportation sector, and beyond, Kaleb is particularly skilled at developing trust and serving as a partner in his clients' risk management needs. With a strong background in investigations, Kaleb excels at exceeding client expectations in rapid response scenarios, pre-suit claims management, and complex litigation in federal and state court. Whatever the alleged liability, Kaleb works closely with his clients to accurately value exposure, explore risk transfer opportunities, and achieve cost-effective and fair resolutions.

The ability to meet someone at their level with humility, a calming presence, and sure-footed confidence, has led to successes in each of Kaleb's practice areas. Whether a claim is made for wrongful death, serious personal injury, product liability, wrongful termination, or results from a contract dispute, Kaleb's level-headed approach to the unique challenges of any given case has kept clients coming back. Ultimately, whether through trial, mediation, or thoughtful negotiation, Kaleb works to achieve the best outcome for his clients and keeps people at the center of what he does.

Prior to joining Kopka Law Group, Kaleb represented the Commonwealth of Kentucky in the prosecution of felony offenses for eight years. As an Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney in Louisville, he worked as the White-Collar Crime liaison, director of the Grand Jury, and independently managed countless complex cases including homicides, major drug trafficking operations, and public corruption matters. In an effort to better protect the citizens of Kentucky from public corruption, Kaleb was sworn as a Special Assistant

United States Attorney in 2019. Kaleb has shared his insight through the years, teaching courses for undergraduates, law students, police cadets, and seasoned investigators.

Outside the office, Kaleb values family above all else. He enjoys spending time with his wife, Ajla, also an attorney, and their beautiful daughter.
